Brad Beakes Featured Guest Teacher

Brad was born and raised in Southern California and began his formal dance training at Dellos Dance and Performing Arts studying hip hop, jazz and ballet. He later attended California State University Fullerton where he was immersed in modern dance. While living in California Brad danced in many Los Angeles based performances such as Celebrate Dance, Los Angeles Dance Invitational and Palm Desert Choreography Festival: Concert Under the Stars and also choreographed and performed in the American College Dance Festival. He also danced in Mike Esperanza's BARE Dance Company and Macarena Gandarillas' Visions Dance Theatre where he was recognized as the 2010 Lester Horton Award winner for 'Outstanding Male Performance' in 'Always Remember Never to Forget'. Brad later moved to New York City in 2010 to attend The Ailey School's spring semester in the Independent Study Program. Shortly thereafter he joined Naganuma Dance and performed in NYC venues such as the Merce Cunningham Studio and SummerStage. Brad recently moved to Salt Lake City in the summer of 2011 and is currently dancing full-time for the Ririe-Woodbury Dance Company.
